A

Partnership Among

Senior Citizens,

Senior Providers

and

Law Enforcement

What is a TRIAD?

A TRIAD consists of a three-way effort among:

1. Senior Citizens (Sixty and older)
2. Senior Providers
3. Law Enforcement

A TRIAD assesses the needs and concerns of senior citizens.

A TRIAD strives to reduce the victimization of the elderly.

A TRIAD is a collaborative effort and each TRIAD program is unique to the area it serves.

What do TRIADS do?

EDUCATE:

Sponsor crime prevention and safety programs for senior citizens

COMMUNICATE: Provide a forum for law enforcement and the community to share needs and concerns and develop solutions.

INVOLVE: Bring seniors and law enforcement together to develop community-wide solutions.

RESPOND: To the unique needs of its community and population.

What can result?

REDUCED criminal victimization of senior citizens.

IMPROVED quality of life for older persons in the community.

GREATER involvement of the community in implementing solutions.

FOCUSED attention to the crime-related needs and concerns of senior citizens.

ENHANCED delivery of services and programs which contribute to the safety of older citizens.
